

CONTENTS

Introduction	5
I. Asia	6
1. Where is Asia located and what is its environment?	6
2. How does plate tectonics affect the continent of Asia?	8
3. What is South-East Asia's rice culture like?	10
4. How has Japan developed its high-tech economy?	12
5. What are the Chinese population and economy like?	14
6. What are the features of India's society and economy?	16
7. What are culture and economy of the Middle East like?	18
8. Why does the Middle East experience military conflicts?	20
II. Africa	22
1. What is the air circulation in Africa like? What are Sahel's deserts?	22
2. What are the environmental zones in Africa?	24
3. What is farming in West Africa like?	26
4. How does Ethiopia represent hunger and malnutrition in Africa?	28
5. What is the position of tourism in Kenya?	30
6. How do traditional and modern economies coexist in Africa?	32
III. North and South Americas	34
1. What is the topography of the Americas?	34
2. What are the forest line and the agriculture range in Canada?	36
3. How do tornadoes and tropical cyclones develop in North America?	38
4. Why is the Amazon known as the 'green lungs of the world'?	40
5. What is the indigenous population of North America like?	42
6. What are the extreme faces of urbanisation?	44
7. Why is the Silicon Valley called a science park?	46
8. What is the position of the USA in the global economy?	48
9. How much food do the USA waste?	50
IV. Australia and Oceania.....	52
1. What is the environment of Australia and Oceania?	52
2. What are the population and economy of Australia and Oceania like? ...	54
V. Polar regions	56
1. Where are the Arctic and Antarctica located and what is their environment?	56
2. What does science study in the polar regions?	58
Glossary	60
Geographical names, terms and people	68
Blank maps	79