

Contents

Introduction	5
I. Geographical space – the study object of socio-economic geography.....	7
II. Population of the world and of Poland	9
1. Reasons for changes in the population of the world and of Poland	9
2. Natural and non-natural conditions of population distribution	13
3. Areas of population concentration.....	22
4. Socio-economic and ecological effects of overpopulation	24
5. Racial, ethnic and religious diversity of the world population.....	25
III. Demographic and settlement issues of the world and of Poland	35
1. Biological and socio-occupational structure of population	35
2. Reasons for and effects of migration.....	40
3. Transformation of settlement patterns.....	43
4. Urbanization and its effects	48
IV. Interaction within the system ‘people-nature-economy’	50
1. People in the face of natural hazards	51
2. People’s dependence on natural conditions at various stages of economic development.....	51
3. Renewable and non-renewable natural resources.....	53
4. Role of water within the system ‘people-nature-economy’	57
5. Energy issues of the world and of Poland	60
V. Types of management in the natural environment and their effects	72
1. Conditions for agricultural development and types of farming.....	72
2. Polish agriculture compared with that of European countries.....	78
3. Economic exploitation of sea and ocean resources	82
4. Food issues	86
5. Forest resources and their exploitation.....	89
6. Industry – functions and location factors	93
7. New technologies	96
8. Poland’s industry compared with that of European countries.....	98
9. Construction industry and its relation to local mineral resources	99
10. Importance of transportation for the socio-economic development of the world.....	101

VI. Anthropopressure – transformation of the natural environment of the Earth.....	115
1. Sources of anthropopressure.....	115
2. Regional differences in the world anthropopressure processes.....	120
VII. Environmental protection of the Earth	121
1. Goals and tasks of environmental protection of the Earth	121
2. Environmental protection in Poland.....	123
Bibliography	127
Glossary	128

The book contains annex maps:

I. Physical map of Poland
Administrative division of Poland.....	16, 17
II. Religions of the world
Distribution and number of ‘Polonia’	32, 33
III. Physical map of Europe
Physical map of the world.....	80, 81